

#4a Flyer Ideas for Sales Executive

Elite Club #28 December 2017

Happy New Year!

Take on my
2018 New Year Challenge

Start the New Year with an empty jar and fill it with notes about “good things” that happen to you. Then, on New Year’s Eve, December 31, 2018, empty the jar and read the positive things that happened that year, best feeling ever! It’s such a great way to kick off to the New Year! Call or email me and I will personally bring a jar to your office!

*Other people can fill your jar too!

*Don't read it until the end of the year!

*This is a great idea for your clients too!
